Practice:

A perfectly executed 89 yard drive in the first quarter proved to be the difference for St. Francis in this game. Minus the 3 scores on CV miscues, the Knights encountered the toughest battle of their season against the proud and ferocious Falcons! Having to scratch and claw to eek out a victory against the Falcons, two divisions below them, may cause their saintness to consider looking for a bye week next season - yeeesssss?

QB Zac Wilkerson spread the ball around to four different receivers - #' 2 Marro Lee, 4 Kevin Fernandez, 5 Mark Sereno and 8 Nick Ruiz - while WR Mark Sereno showed off his former QB skills with a reverse/pass to Nikko Domingo for a 38 yard reception which eventually lead to a Falcon TD. Left guard # 54, A-Fletch, blasted open the hole at the goal line for Zac to sneak in, and also pulled, trapped and pancaked a Knight, springing # 4 Kevin Fernandez for a weaving 37 yd pop to the end zone. 54's O line equals - 52 Nathan Sarreal, 53 Patrick Arnold, 72 Bryan Luna, 75 Garrett Stoudt - provided the protection needed, as well as room for the running backs to average 5.6 yards per carry. Bluedozers Rideau?

B. E., B. E. Aggressive! And the Falcon D certainly was! # 80 Levi Walker led the way with 6 unassisted tackles (as highlighted on Fox News Sports) and fine corner coverage. Defensive linchpin

Bryan Luna-72 had 4 solos and 3 assisted tackles; strongside linebacker Patrick Arnold, playing primarily the 2nd half, contributed 2 solo, 2 assists and the lone sack of the game; 30-Tyler Martinez 2 solo/2 assists/fmble recovery, 41-Chris Fierro 1/1 & a fmble recovery, 3-Nikko Domingo 2/1, 12-Paul Perigini 2 solo, 52-Nathan Sarreal 1/1, 21 Wes Berg 2 assists, 50-Josh Alcalde 2assists, 10-Alec Traber, 71-Bobby Beccerra, 75-Garrett Stoudt all 1 assist.

Can't do it alone: 45-Erik Unruh trucked a Knight on a kickoff - 2nd week a big hit.

More then a game, Part 1: Watching 53 tell 54 those are not birdies or bells - see Junko!!

More then a game, Part 2: Team mtg, on the field after school song, led by 53 - leadership!

More then a game Part 3: Coach Warnock on their minds and the wrist of 64 - love & respect!

Next Game: vs La Canada @ Moyse Field, Friday, Sept 24th , 7:00pm
